Student/Parent Expectation Contract

I understand that any of the following infractions committed by a student will result in a call to the student's parent(s)/guardian(s). The parent(s)/guardian(s) will be required pick up the student. The infractions include, but are not limited to:

- Consumption or possession of alcohol
- Use of or possession of illegal drugs, to include another student's prescribed medication
- Inappropriate and/or improper behavior
- Refusal to follow adult direction or school rules
- Damaging personal or private property
- Behavior that jeopardizes other's safety or undermines the overall intent of the group trip
- Does not follow the guidelines related to curfew

Upon return to CIVA, the student may be expelled and unable to return for the next school year. For seniors, this could result in failure to graduate. This applies to all students.
