

Enrollment Agreement Preparing Scholars, Citizens and Artisans for Life

Vision: To inspire each student to understand and pursue his/her unique potential.

Mission: To develop young people of character who acquire three essential qualities of the educated individual, citizen, and worker.

CIVA students will become scholars who develop “habits of the mind to include curiosity, thoughtfulness, critical awareness and imagination.”

CIVA students will become citizens of the classroom and the larger society in which they display responsibility, dependability, care, commitment and other genuine “habits of the heart.”

CIVA students will develop as artisans who learn to tap into their special gifts to create high-quality work that commands a deep involvement while giving meaning to their efforts through acquiring “habits of the soul.”

As a Parent I commit to support my student at CIVA by:

1. Encouraging and supporting collegiate studies after graduation.
2. Ensuring my child attends school on time and in dress code.
3. Doing my personal best to model healthy personal growth.
4. Supporting all the policies of CIVA.
5. Speaking with my son/daughter about what they are learning in school.
6. Volunteering at least ten hours a year with the school.
7. Speaking with your son/daughter about the 9 keys of excellence.
8. Participating in student/parent teacher conferences.
9. Support collegiate pursuits by ensuring all students complete standardized testing, as it is common throughout the collegiate experience.

As a Student I commit to doing my best by:

1. Striving for academic excellence and prepare myself for collegiate success.
2. Participating in all aspects of the CIVA program.
3. Being a positive influence on my peers.
4. Agreeing to follow all aspects of the Student Handbook and Dress Code.
5. Trying new things and explore extra-curricular activities and athletics.
6. Doing my part to create a safe, positive peer culture.
7. Living by the 9 keys of excellence.
8. Performing my best on standardized testing, to prepare myself for collegiate success.
